

THE PROCESS

You have the right to appeal any decision of ineligibility to continue to receive financial assistance. An appeal would normally be based upon some unusual situation or condition which prevented you from passing more of your courses, or which necessitated that you withdraw from classes. Examples of possible situations include documented serious illness, severe injury, or death of a family member. You will receive a written response from the chair of the committee as to the committee's decisions.

Students are required to meet with a Success Center Coordinator with their completed Appeal to create their Academic Plan.

The Center for Student Success is located at 5th Floor, West Penn Building and their phone number is 412-392-8153.

Students are also encouraged to be as detailed as possible in developing their academic plans by listing the courses that they plan on taking over the next two semesters and the grades they expect to earn. The Financial Aid Appeals Committee will review your written appeal and academic plan and will either approve a financial aid probation semester or continue the termination. If you are granted a financial aid probation semester, you must meet the requirements of your academic plan created by you and your Success Center Coordinator in order to receive additional financial aid.

Please note that this policy is for federal and institutional aid only. There are separate SAP standards for the Pennsylvania State Grant program that the University is required to follow.

SAP STATUS:

<https://www.pointpark.edu/Admissions/CostsandFinancialAid/SatisfactoryAcademicProgress>

Financial Aid Warning – After one semester a student who is failing to make satisfactory academic progress is placed on financial aid warning. Point Park University reinstates eligibility for federal and institutional financial aid for one payment period and may do so without a student appeal.

Appeal and Academic plan – After the warning semester, a student who still does not meet SAP standards may submit an appeal and academic plan for reconsideration of their eligibility for financial aid.

Financial Aid Probation– A status the University assigns to a student who is failing to make satisfactory academic progress and who successfully appeals. Eligibility for financial aid may be reinstated for only one semester during probation if the student is still not meeting the SAP standards. If the student meets the SAP standards at the end of the probation semester, their financial aid eligibility is reinstated for future semesters as long as they continue to meet the SAP standards.

Termination – If you do not have grounds for an appeal, or if your appeal is denied, your financial aid is terminated. You may still be able to regain your eligibility for future semesters. This is done by enrolling at Point Park University at your own expense until the deficit has been corrected. You may choose to apply for a private loan during this period, as some lenders allow students who are not making satisfactory academic progress to borrow from their educational loan programs. Payment plans are also available through the Office of Student Accounts.

INSTRUCTIONS: Your Success Center Coordinator will help you formulate an academic plan detailing the classes you must take and the minimum grades you must earn. The minimum length for an academic plan is one semester. You will need three copies of your academic plan: one for your academic advisor, one for financial aid, and one for you to keep.

Please note that this policy is for federal and institutional aid. There are separate SAP standards for the Pennsylvania State Grant program that the University is required to follow. The Office of Financial Aid will review your progress at the end of your probation semester to verify that you have fulfilled the terms of your academic plan. If you do not receive C's or better, you will NOT be eligible to receive your financial aid for the next semester. If you choose to register for classes please contact Student Accounts to make payment arrangements.
